

CHAPTER V

THE CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. The Conclusion

From previous chapter, description, the writer can take a conclusion that the lack students attention can cause some factors such as they do not understand what the writer was explaining about and make the students feel difficult in learning English and the other is make students willing to learn English reducing. In this case, the writer sing a song that will increase take their vocabulary in English and the English words are kept in their memory when sing a song.

To make students have a willing to learn English, the role of the teacher is very important. The writer did a direct approaching to the students, heard their problem in learning English, and encouraged the students to believe on their ability that they could pronounce very well if they practice pronunciation English in every their daily life with some routines guidance by the teacher.

During the research the writer also concluded that their understanding in English is still poor that is caused by the factors from the previous expansion that has mentioned above. This problem needs to get more attention from the courses parties so this case could be decreased.

B. Suggestion

During the research, the writer got some complains from the students about teaching system from their main lessons in the morning, so they lack of energy after school. They did not feel uncomfortable. So the writer thought that the teacher needs to improve their English and decide the best teaching method that could attract their student.

For the course institute to solve some problem, the course need to improve their learning system, increase the skill of their teacher, and also the course need to focus in expand their student ability for learning English. So their vision, mission, and purpose could be achieved.

For the next researchers, they should get more data sample and obtain accurate data resulting for better research from previous research.
