

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SITUATION

A. CONCLUSION

After analyzing from the whole research, the writer has been in the conclusion chapter. Some point that can be concluded are:

1. There are 32 verbs classified as Telic and Atelic in 8 songs studied in this paper. Some examples of Telic verbs are found, looked, said. On the other hand, some examples of Atelic verbs are keep, moving, looked.
2. The verbs can be identified as Telic or Atelic because both verbs have difference in terminal point. Telic verbs has a terminal point while Atelic verbs do not.
3. Based on the analysis conducted, there is no dominant verbs between Telic and Atelic in eight songs of Ed Sheeran. Among 32 verbs analyzed, both Telic and Atelic have same numbers, that is 16 verbs.

B. SUGGESTION

From this research the writer has some suggestions as follows:

1. English Learners

The writer suggests English learners to learn more about semantics, other than Telic and Atelic, since it is beneficial for understanding meaning of language.

2. Next Researcher

The writer suggests the next researchers to conduct research on other situations types in semantics.

3. Campus

The writer suggests the campus, especially campus library to provide more references about semantics.

