

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. CONCLUSION

After analyzing the data found in the previous chapter, there are some conclusion. Here some of conclusion of the research to understand.

1. Lexical and contextual meaning is very important to learn because it can avoid misunderstanding.
2. There are 20 data of lexical and contextual meaning from the five of Ed Sheeran song lyrics. The five songs are The City (2009), all of the Stars (2014), Photograph (2015), Shape of You (2017), Hearts Don't Break Around Here (2017).
3. The writer analysed the lexical meaning easier in every lyric in Ed Sheeran song lyric because it is the real meaning. Moreover, the writer finds the lexical meanings in the Oxford dictionary.
4. The writer analyzed the contextual meaning through based on the lexical meaning, relation of one lyric with another lyric and background or situation of song writer.

B. Suggestion

After analyzing and giving conclusion, the writer made suggestion for English Lecturers, English Department Student, and for the people in general as follows:

1. Suggestion for Students

The writer suggested that the students of English Department should study linguistics, especially semantics. It is expected that understanding semantics will help them to understand about the several meanings.

2. Suggestion for Lectures

The writer appreciates the lecturers who teach the linguistic even though do not their majors. Therefore, it is better if the lecturers are those who teach linguistics.

3. Suggestion for the General Readers

The writer suggested to general readers, knowing lexical and contextual meanings is way to avoid misunderstandings in daily life. Specifically, studying lexical and contextual meanings is one of way to understand context what the people saying.