

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

After analyzing the previous chapter, about phrasal categories of sentence structure in simple sentence Goddess Girl Persephone the Phony short story as the object data analysis.

Based on the analyzing of the data about phrasal categories of sentence structure in simple sentence Goddess Girl Persephone The Phony short story by Joan Holub & Suzanne Williams, the research concluded that:

1. Explaining about phrasal categories, there are many categories and some have been explained in this analysis. From the 5 phrasal categories that have been explained, only 4 categories are found in the short story, namely noun phrases 52%, verb phrases 25%, adjective phrases 10% and prepositional phrases 13%.
2. In the phrasal analysis of the category of sentence structure in simple sentences, the researcher found 10 function consisting of, 1 "they", 4 "I", 4 "she" and 1 "person name". The subject is a function in the sentence, it can also be called a noun which means a noun phrase. Researchers get a lot of lessons when analyzing and can better understand these materials. It turns out that phrasal categories are very important in making a story.

B. Suggestion

Based on the analysis phrasal categories of sentence structure in simple sentence Goddess Girl Persephone The Phone short story by Joan Holub & Suzanne Williams, the researcher provides several suggestion that is useful for the students and other researchers who are interested in linguistic study, especially syntax.

To students, especially the English Department students who are interested in linguistic study. They are expected to learn a lot about phrasal categories because there are many other categories that have not been explained in this analysis. Additionally, they are also expected to employ other media as the research, such as novels, song lyrics and the other. Be careful in analyzing, focus on what is being done as researching a sentence is not easy.

In this study, the researcher only focused on four phrasal categories. The researcher hopes that other researchers are interested in exploring other phrasal categories. Use as many theories as possible to get as many explanations as possible. It recommends also to understand carefully about phrasal categories, so that it is easy to analyze.