

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter, the writer puts the conclusion and suggestion for the reader to understand more about the research.

A. Conclusion

The following is the conclusion that the writer would like to reach after conducting study and data analysis bracketing on the simple sentence and the element of the word. The writer has been conclude that syntax is the study about principle and rules of grammar for making sentence in particular language. Peter Pan by J.M. Barrie there are many simple sentence that can be analyze bracketing creation and analyze element of the sentence.

In this research, the most part of speech that appear in simple sentence is noun (31,93%), followed verb (18,49%), pronoun (12,60), preposition(9,24%), determiner (7,56%), auxiliary and adverb have a same percentage (5.89%), Adjective(5,04%), and the least is article (3,36).

B. Suggestion

1. To Student

The writer advises the following researchers to develop this research in a larger context since students who are interested in linguistics, particularly in the syntax field, are highly anticipated to do research about bracketing creation

2. To the readers

They should be more understand to creation bracketing and analyze the element of the sentence. It is necessary to comprehend the knowledge background and reference, so it will not lead to misinterpretation. Beside, they should deepend some theory of bracketing by reading many references and applying in a research.

3. To the writer

As the writer hopes that this study will be helpful for the readers as a related reference in analyzing works of syntax, the writer would appreciate any suggestions or criticisms concerning how to improve this research.

