CHAPTER V

CONCLUSSION AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter, the writer described about conclusion and suggestion for the reader to more understand about the research.

A. Conclusion

The following is the conclusion that the writer would like to reach after conducting study and data analysis on mother and daughter's "node" in the simple sentence taken from the The Jungle Book short Story. The result is 21 simple sentences, from the data there is 140 (65,72%) terminal nodes and 73 (34,23%) non terminal nodes.

In analysis mother and daughter node in simple sentence that will show by tree diagram is display hierarchical structure of a string of element. Grouped of words that include NP or VP, so analysis the sentence with tree diagram which indicates grammatical structure.

B. Suggestion

Some recommendations for further study are made based on the findings of the current studies. The recommendations are listed below.

1. To the Students

The writer encourages students who are interested in the field of syntax, particularly in the field of analysis utilizing tree diagrams, to do research on mother and daughter of nodes. As a result, the author advises the following researchers to expand this study in a larger context.

2. To the Readers

They can use the findings of this study to more understand about analyse mother, daughter and node in the sentence, and they can apply this knowledge to their own work.

3. To the Writer

The writer hopes that the other researchers will continue to discuss about mother, daughter, and node, and the writer also hope that this study will be helpful for the readers as a related reference in analysing works of syntax, the writer would appreciate any suggestions or criticisms concerning how to improve this research.
