2. Suggestion

After finishing the whole research from the beginning to the major analysis, the researcher has some suggestions:

a. For English Learners

English is an international language that is used in communication in parts of the world. The researcher hopes that English language students will study hard and enthusiastically because learning English is very useful for any field if our language communication is smooth with foreigners in parts of the world.

b. For Next Researchers

The researcher hopes that this research can help further researchers to become reference material in the final assignment of making a thesis. The researcher expects that the final and middle position research on this relative clause can be further developed by next researcher for the benefit of language education.

c. For STBA JIA

The researcher hopes that this research can be a reference for students to work on their final thesis assignment. The researcher hopes that the reference books in the library will be updated yearly because it is for the benefit of students who are working on or looking for references STBA JIA's library.

d. For Readers

The researcher hopes that this research can become a new science for the reader and can help them to understand more about relative clauses in grammar. It is also expected that the reader can better understand how to form complex sentences with the medial and final positions in relative sentences.
