

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

The research has purpose to find out about the student's perception towards the use of Wattpad in reading comprehension at fourth semester in STBA JIA and the impact of using Wattpad on the student's perception in reading comprehension for fourth students in STBA JIA. After analyzed the data, the writer made conclusion of the research as follow:

1. The students' perceptions of the use of Wattpad in reading comprehension from 17 students who answered the questionnaire. The writer concluded the results of the questionnaire, namely most respondents accepted the statements in the questionnaire about students' perceptions of Wattpad in learning reading comprehension at STBA JIA quite good. For example, there is a statement that Wattpad is efficient for extensive reading activity. From this statement the writer found that 9 out of 17 respondents agreed with the statement.
2. This writer analysis the impact of using Wattpad on the students' perceptions were generally good from the result of the questionnaire and interview. All students agree that Wattpad is very helpful when learning English. They think that Wattpad is more effective and useful in learning to read.

B. Suggestion

After analyzing and giving conclusions, the writer would like to deliver suggestion as the following:

1. For students

The writer advises fourth-semester students at STBA JIA to read more stories on Wattpad to expand their reading. In addition, they should also try to note down new words they find. Thus, the writer hopes that students can learn more outside of class by accessing Wattpad to familiarize themselves with reading.

2. For readers

Readers should understand the true intent and purpose of students' perceptions of the use of Wattpad in reading comprehension. After knowing the results of this study, readers who may experience perceptions of the use of Wattpad in reading comprehension in everyday life will further improve their perceptions.